SUMMER 2010 CHILDREN'S ART WORKSHOPS AGES 6 TO 15 YEARS

CHALK IT UP

We will smudge, smear, rub, erase, and wet sticks of chalk to create images of still lives, landscapes, people and animals.

DATES: June 7 through 10

GAMES UN-PLUGGED

What did kids play with before play stations and computers? Participants in this workshop will design and create old-fashion games to play and display.

DATES: June 21 through 24

ORIGAMI

In this workshop young artists will learn basic paper folds then work up to creating a paper lantern.

DATES: June 28 through July 1

SWEATS AND T'S

What can you create with old T-shirts and sweaters? Belts, bags, pillows and more. Bring old T-shirts and sweaters (some will be available at workshop), and transform them into something new.

DATES: July 12 through 15

PRINT MAKING

Finger prints, stamps, leaves, and styrofoam plates are just a few of the materials we will use in this class to create wonderful printed images.

DATES: July 19 through 22

STYLING

Students will study paintings of famous artists and then create works of their own in similar styles.

Starry nights, lily pads, and blue horses are just a sample of the subjects we will study and paint.

DATES: July 26 through 29
